

The essentials of expanding your operations in the United States - the structural and legal 'need-to-knows' for Greek entrepreneurs and companies

You are invited to a presentation for Greek businesses considering commencing or increasing their operations in the United States. The discussion focuses on the issues gleaned from our representing 70+ foreign companies in the United States for over 20 years.

The presentation will be followed by wine and cheese. Watson, Farley & Williams welcomes its clients and friends to this informal and informative reception.
